

13th Annual Aviation Conference

2012 is upon us! To ring in the New Year the aviation partners of Paterson, MacDougall LLP and Alexander Holburn Beaudin & Lang LLP are pleased to announce that the 13th Annual Aviation Conference will be held on Wednesday, February 1, 2012 at the Sheraton Toronto Airport Hotel and Conference Centre.

The 13th Annual Aviation Conference continues its tradition of excellence in providing an opportunity for exceptional speakers to come together with attendees from all areas of the aviation industry to examine and discuss topical issues that affect our industry.

We invite you to attend our annual conference discussing developments in the areas of aviation law, government initiatives, insurance, commerce and regulation that affect all of us in Canada and internationally. Speakers at this year's conference will canvass such issues as the Canadian all-in airfare advertising changes, jurisdiction for suits against tour operators, statutory requirements for payment of passenger medical expenses, Canadian Transportation Safety Board reporting requirements and the annual legal update on liability.

And, of course, there is the always enjoyable mingling of friends and peers throughout the day.

Please check out our link at www.pmlaw.com for developments and conference agenda.

We look forward to greeting our friends, old and new, on February 1, 2012.
