

14th Annual Aviation Conference

2013 will soon be upon us! To ring in the New Year the aviation partners of Alexander Holburn Beaudin + Lang LLP and Paterson, MacDougall LLP are pleased to announce that the 14th Annual Aviation Conference will be held on Thursday, January 31, 2013 at the Sheraton Toronto Airport Hotel and Conference Centre.

We invite you to attend our annual conference discussing developments in the areas of aviation law, government initiatives, insurance, commerce and regulation that affect all of us in Canada and internationally.

The 14th Annual Aviation Conference continues its tradition of providing an opportunity for exceptional speakers to come together with attendees from all areas of the aviation industry to examine and discuss topical issues that affect our industry. And, of course, there is the always enjoyable mingling of friends and peers throughout the day.

For more details on this year's conference, please see the attached Agenda.

We look forward to greeting our friends, old and new, on January 31, 2013.
